

Insight Jumps 56 Spots on 2018 Fortune 500 List

May 22, 2018

TEMPE, Ariz., May 22, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Insight (NASDAQ:NSIT), a leading provider of Intelligent Technology Solutions™, announced today its inclusion in the 2018 Fortune 500 rankings, jumping 56 spots to No. 417. This is its largest year-over-year leap in the rankings to date, as well as its highest position on the list since making its debut in 2008.

Insight's breadth and depth of capabilities has earned industry accolades from technology brands like IBM, Intel, Microsoft and Dell EMC over the past year in categories ranging from operational excellence and transformational partner to outstanding data center management. The organization's focus is on helping clients navigate complex business challenges so they can manage today and transform for the future. Insight brings a number of offerings to the marketplace, including lifecycle services, helping organizations migrate to Windows 10, and innovative solutions like deploying the new Microsoft Azure Sphere cloud product.

"At Insight, we believe that every company is a technology company. Our growth over the 10 years we have been named to the Fortune 500 list has been the result of our focus on helping clients manage IT today as they transform their business for tomorrow," said Ken Lamneck, president and CEO of Insight Enterprises. "We have the capabilities to be an effective partner worldwide to organizations of all types and sizes, helping them invest smarter, collaborate better, optimize their businesses and innovate for the future."

Insight's recent establishment of Supply Chain Optimization, Connected Workforce, Cloud + Data Center Transformation and Digital Innovation solution areas in the U.S., with similar solutions across global regions, have helped clients evolve in the face of new, diverse IT challenges in a tech-centric business environment.

"Helping businesses run smarter with technology is our purpose. Technology has long enabled forward-thinking companies to compete more effectively, a fact reflected across our peers in the Fortune 500 and certainly in our own advancing position on this year's list," said Lamneck.

Fortune identifies the nation's 500 largest companies based on a review of the prior year's total revenue and factors such as profits after taxes, year-end assets and total stockholders' equity.
