Insight Positioned in Gartner Magic Quadrant for Workplace Services, North America

Insight Recognized for Its Ability to Execute and Completeness of Vision

TEMPE, Ariz., Feb. 13, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Insight Enterprises (NASDAQ:NSIT), a leading provider of Insight Intelligent Technology Solutions™ to organizations of all sizes, today announced it has been positioned in the Gartner 2018 "Magic Quadrant for Managed Workplace Services, North America."¹

According to Gartner, "The main goal of Managed Workplace Services is to provide integrated and ubiquitous workplace services to employees to increase their engagement and leverage their digital dexterity to support the organization's digital business strategy."

"Today's workforce is digitally savvy, and in an increasingly competitive environment, companies need flexibility to keep employees connected," said Steve Dodenhoff, President, Insight U.S. "Our extensive experience with devices, strong partner connections, and our connected workforce solutions are designed to improve people's work satisfaction and increase their productivity. This is what enables a seamless user experience that's essential to retaining talent."

Insight has implemented a strategic roadmap to launch new digital workplace capabilities such as Insight Managed Office, intelligent automation and chatbots to provide end-to-end digital workplace experiences for its clients.

"We've listened to the needs of our clients and invested in our Connected Workforce solution area to create truly meaningful solutions that deliver modern experiences and help end users work smarter. Our Insight Managed Office offering is a fully managed end-to-end Device as a Service solution that keeps users connected and productive in the office, at home, or wherever their work takes them," said David Mayer, vice president and general manager, Connected Workforce at Insight.
